

AN ORDINANCE TO AMEND AND REORDAIN THE ORDINANCE OF MIDDLESEX COUNTY ESTABLISHING HUNTON CREEK A NO WAKE ZONE.

BE IT ORDAINED by the Board of Supervisors of Middlesex County that the Ordinance Establishing Hunton Creek in Middlesex County, Virginia as a No Wake Zone and providing penalties for violation of the ordinance is hereby amended and reordained as follows:

Section 1.

This ordinance shall be known and may be cited as the Hunton Creek Ordinance.

Section 2.

This ordinance is promulgated pursuant to authority contained in Section 62.1-182 of the Code of Virginia of 1950, as amended.

Section 3.

This ordinance shall be effective upon its approval by the Virginia Commission of Game and Inland Fisheries and erection of appropriate warning signs.

Section 4.

All of Hunton Creek, a tributary of the Rappahannock River in Middlesex County, Virginia, is hereby designated as a no wake zone for boats and other watercrafts. The speed of all commercial and pleasure crafts shall not exceed five (5) miles per hour, and in no event shall any boat or craft be operated in such a manner as to create a swell to the injury of the other boats or other crafts anchored, tied up, or plying in Hunton Creek or to the fastland thereof.

Section 5.

Property owners along the shores of Hunton Creek shall be responsible for constructing and erecting, at their own expense, appropriate warning signs. Such signs shall meet the design criteria of the Virginia Commission of Game and Inland Fisheries and shall be placed only at locations designed by said commission.

Section 6.

Any person violating any provision of this ordinance shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine of not more than fifty dollars ($50.00) for each such violation.

Adopted by the Board of Supervisors of Middlesex County, Virginia this 20th day of October, 1992.

This ordinance shall be effective upon adoption.
